

“Haunting Legends” Rubric

(Discuss these criteria with students before their writing assignment, then use for evaluation.)

Ranking:

3. The writing is fully developed and fulfills all the requirements of the task. It is complete and accurate and indicates a very good understanding of the story and characters. It includes relevant, supportive details and information from the interviews.
2. The writing is adequately developed and fulfills most of the requirements of the task. It provides some relevant, supportive information in the text.
1. The writing includes a few correct details, but ideas may be too general or overly specific. Information about the story may be incomplete.
0. The writing has many inaccuracies and irrelevancies based on the interviews. Equal to a blank paper.